JAPAN'S PAPERS SAY UNWRITTEN ALLIANCE CATHCART DENIES CHARGE OF DOLE

Come Into Court

TO THE HAWAIIAN GAZETTE COMPANY, LIMITED, AND WATER G. SMITH.

In your paper, the Advertiser, you refer to my libel suits against you as "bluffs" and intimate editorially that they are never to be tried, but will be dropped after election.

There is time to try these libel suits or some of them before election. Under the law you have a right to delay, but there is no need of it. There are now four cases filed against you.

I hereby challenge you to an immediate trial of any of these cases you may choose to select, and offer to go at once before a jury and give you an opportunity to prove your assertions.

You have repeatedly said that your cases are ready. You may file your answers instantly, waive your rights of delay and go into court at once if you desire.

I am ready to meet the issues at a moment's notice and my attorneys also are ready to conduct the cases.

If you accept this challenge, there is time enough for a jury to decide between us before election day. If you refuse it, the only reason for refusal will be that you fear the result of meeting responsible witnesses in court, and prefer to keep up your daily campaign of irresponsible slander.

JOHN W. CATHCART.

Frear At Orpheum

Republican—Orpheum.
Republican—Vineyard street, near camp.
Democratic—Atkinson park.
Kakaako.
Democratic—School and Liliha.

The meeting at the Orpheum will be one of the most interesting of the entire campaign, as Governor Frear will be the main speaker. He will particularly dwell on the importance of the election of a Republican Senate and House.

The other speakers of the evening will be the candidates for the Legislature, the meeting being on the whole called for the purpose of gathering support for the Legislative ticket.

FAREWELL DANCE FOR PACIFIC FLEET AT THE HONOLULU SEASIDE HOTEL TONIGHT

A farewell dance in honor of the officers of the Pacific Fleet will be given at the Honolulu Seaside Hotel tonight. As there are no other entertainments of a public nature being given, there will undoubtedly be a large turnout of local society, Army and Navy folk, and the patrons of the Seaside to bid farewell to our gallant and popular naval guests, a cordial invitation to all of whom is here extended.

Chillingworth and Thurston Disagree

Judge Dole this afternoon gave a correction of his interview which appeared in the morning paper to a Bulletin reporter, stating that, although he was quoted correctly in the main, there were some changes to be made.

"The phrase 'divide the spoils,' referring to Cathcart's alleged proposition to Chillingworth and Brown, which I am quoted in the Advertiser as saying, I do not believe was used in the conversation," stated the Judge in his office.

"Again, regarding the second interview which I am quoted as speaking of, it is very dim in my memory, and, in fact, I had forgotten it until it was called to my attention by Mr. Thurston, who happened to be present. While I do not doubt that it took place, my memory does not recall the place where it occurred. For that matter, Chillingworth and Thurston disagree as to the place where the second interview took place, one of them saying that it was at my beach home, and the other stating that it was here in my office."

Dole Acted On Hearsay

The Advertiser reports the statements made by Judge Dole substantially as Judge Dole made them yesterday, but leaves out the reply made by Judge Dole to a question that I put to him.

At the conclusion of Judge Dole's statement, I asked Judge Dole, "What Mr. Brown said to you being hearsay, you acted upon the word of Mr. Chillingworth only?"

Judge Dole replied, "Yes, I acted on what Mr. Chillingworth said, although it did not follow that I believed it to be true, but it would have required an investigation, which I did not feel called upon to make at that time."

When I sought the position of Attorney General, I became aware that Judge Dole had some information apparently detrimental to myself, on which he was relying.

Governor Dole would not tell me what his information was nor from whom he got it.

I was not afforded any opportunity of denial and did not even know the nature of the charge. This is the first time I have had an opportunity of making a denial, and I DO NOW DENY THAT AT ANY TIME I MADE

WOMAN DISTILLER WILL GET PARDON

Breckons and Dole To Recommend For Jap
Woman

Sansui, the Japanese woman who was convicted on two counts by the jury in the Federal court of illicit distilling, was this morning given the minimum punishment for each offense by Judge Dole. On the first count the woman was sentenced to one month in jail and to pay a fine of $100, and on the second count, which was the more serious offense, she was sentenced to six months in jail and $500 fine. At the end of the sentence, Judge Dole stated that he was willing to recommend a pardon for the second count, and U. S. Attorney Breckons joined with the Judge in this.

The case is rather peculiar and was a hard one to handle. The woman has five small children, one a babe in arms, to take care of, and the question naturally arose as to how this could be managed if she were imprisoned. Accordingly the sentence of the Court was as light as it possibly could be.

The Court thanked Attorney Clem Quinn for the able defense that he had put up in the face of overwhelming evidence.

'Tis An Alliance, Say Japan Papers

TOKIO, Japan, Oct. 21.—The officers of the American Fleet were entertained today at luncheons given in their honor by Minister of War Terauchi and Banker Mitsui. During the afternoon a garden party was given in their honor followed by a dinner and ball.

The newspapers of the country commenting on the exchange of messages between President Roosevelt through Admiral Sperry, and the Emperor, regard the kindly sentiments as expressing to the world an unwritten alliance between Japan and America.

Will Give Cathcart Chance To Answer

"The committee, since the publication of the first charges, has had under consideration an investigation, and has investigated all the charges, and has also agreed, before coming to a decision, that Cathcart should be given an opportunity to answer the charges at the meeting next Friday at the Orpheum, and that on Saturday morning this committee is to meet to come to a definite conclusion one way or the other, Saturday being the last day on which nomination papers can be filed."

The above statement was given out if the committee had considered the names of possible successors, Castro answered diplomatically that there were plenty of good men.

The meeting lasted for over an hour, during which time the committee which was appointed to handle the Cathcart matter, made its report. Chas. Chillingworth was called into the meeting and asked a number of questions, but the nature of these was not given out. After Chillingworth had left the room Cathcart was speech is insufficient. When asked
